ON THE COVER: The truly inspired
Tom Inouye—from unknown to legend in less than a year.

Copyright 1977 by SURFER Publications, Inc., Dana Point, California, a For Better Living, Inc., Company. Publication offices: 34249 Camino Capistrano, Capistrano Beach, California. For additional copies send $2.50 to: SKATEBOARDER, Post Office Box 1028, Dana Point, California 92629. All correspondence should be sent to the above address.

Chris Strople, an unknown with too much talent to remain that way. Buena Park's Skatopia.

Tom Padaca applying intense Giant Slalom lines. Photo: Todd Friedman/Spectra-Action.

Two-wheeled 360 carve—radical is where you make it. The very radical Bruce Logan (one of the original bowl riders) applies his skills where he makes his bucks.

Gunnar Haugo, blue tile, free-style.

Bob Piercy "getting hungry" (and fast) during the Carlsbad/Hang Ten Downhill event.

A more amplified perspective of the precedent-setting Tom Inouye, at Anaheim's Concrete Wave.

Flat-walled flashback. Bob Biniak at the Mt. Baldy Pipeline.

Desert dueling, "... a skater's way of knowledge." Three of the best take the test. (Front to rear) Bob Biniak directs, Tom Inouye thrusts, and Waldo hangs out.
